

General. Founding Father. Distiller.

"The benefits arising from moderate use of Liquor, have been experienced in All Armies, and are not to be disputed."

—GEORGE WASHINGTON TO THE PRESIDENT OF CONGRESS, AUGUST 16, 1777

Part of practicing moderation is understanding it's not what you drink, it's how much you drink that counts.

www.standarddrinks.com

Distilled Spirits Council • www.distilledspirits.org

